THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1905.

Weather Prediction.

Fair and colder tonight. Tuesday fair and continued cold; fresh westerly winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Christmas cards and post cards at O. J. Dodge's.

Ladies' dress skirts at Perry's. A line we are pleased to show.

Men's and boys' union suits at McWhorter's, 50c to $3.00 per suit.

Negligee and stiff bosom shirts for men and boys at McWhorter's.

The "Two Sisters" company will use all their own scenery at Hale's pavilion tonight.

Winter underwear, the kind you can depend on for warmth and wear, at Veale & Knight's.

The Athens club will hold a musical at the home of Mrs. C. L. Bugbee Thursday evening at 7.30. The Philomathian club will be the guests of the evening.

Bennie Woolhouse underwent an operation yesterday for a throat trouble. Drs. Sprague and Reed performed the operation. The boy is doing first rate.

All members of the Y. M. C., who wish to become candidates for the basketball team, please meet at the gymnasium on Church street Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

Summer Booth—Candy and fudge. Fudge and candy. All home-made and warranted. "Christmas sale," next Wednesday, afternoon and evening, Congregational church parlors.

The L. O. T. M. ladies will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Will Holden, South Main street, to work for the bazaar. Will the soliciting committee please report at this meeting?

The sale of seats for "The Two Sisters," is now open at Harris' Book store. The stage at Hale's Theatre is now large enough for all attractions and every seat in the house is now on an elevated floor.

The students of Goddard give a minstrel show in the gymnasium hall Friday, Dec. 8, the proceeds to go to the Athletic association. This is the first genuine minstrel show ever given at Goddard and a side splitting time is guaranteed to all who attend. Tickets 25 cents.

Rev. W. A. Davison, the Baptist state missionary, preached at the Montpelier Baptist church yesterday. He said that he has called a meeting of the executive committee of the state organization at the Van Ness house in Burlington for Tuesday. A colporteur will be elected January 1, who will visit all the rural districts, distributing Bibles and religious matter and delivering sermons wherever practicable.

As an aftermath of the arrest of two Boston picture agents for alleged larceny of money from their landlady in Waterbury, another charge is likely to be made against one of them by a Burlington man who claims that he let him have a Central Vermont mileage book to go from Burlington to White River Junction. The book contained 477 miles, but it is probable that about 200 miles were torn out by the conductor before the train reached Waterbury, where the men were arrested.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

H. A. Rugg's Swiss St. Bernard dog Nero was humanely put out of the way today by Dr. Lewis, as it was found impossible for the animal to recover from injuries received last spring by being run over by a team. Nero was a handsome and intelligent dog and was greatly prized by his owner.

The Ministers' Monday club met at 10 o'clock this morning in the local Universalist church, there being about twelve ministers present. Rev. C. P. Wetman of the Unitarian church in Montpelier read an interesting paper on "Systems of Education," after which the subject was discussed for some time.

The Episcopal Fair.

The ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold their annual fair and sale in Hale's Pavilion, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 12 and 13. The usual amount of fancy work suitable for Christmas gifts, aprons, home-made candies, dressed dolls, etc., will be on sale at reasonable prices. A unique entertainment will be given each evening. A circus will be presented that will afford amusement to young and old. The circus performers include some of the best local talent. The animals have to be seen to be appreciated. An orchestra will furnish music for dancing each evening. A supper will be served Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7. Admission 10 cents. Remember the place, Hale's Pavilion, and the time, Dec. 12 and 13.

Odd Ladies' Fair.

The Independent Order of Odd Ladies, Manchester Unity, will hold their second annual fair in Miles' hall, Dec. 7, 8 and 9. Many useful and fancy articles will be displayed. Attractive programs have been prepared for each evening which will appear later. Concert at 8 o'clock. Dancing each evening. Music furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra.
